Recent Developments

Global News

- New Zealand will be adopting a new policy of living with COVID-19 starting December 3. A new “traffic light” system will be used, which will rate regions as red, orange, and green depending on virus exposure and vaccination rates.
- Australia will be opening its borders to fully-vaccinated eligible visa holders without the need for travel exemption, starting December 1. Travellers from Japan and Korea who are fully inoculated will also be allowed entry next month.
- Austria has become the first economy in Western Europe to re-impose a full lockdown, igniting concerns that others will follow given Europe’s rising new infections. New measures in Netherlands and Belgium have been met by protests.

Regional News

- Singapore has further relaxed social distancing measures starting yesterday, as new cases and hospitalizations continue to stabilize. Limits on social interactions and dining out has been expanded to five—from two—vaccinated individuals.
- Two hundred vaccinated foreign tourists arrived in Vietnam’s Phu Quoc island over the weekend, the first wave of travellers in nearly two years. While there is no mandatory two-week quarantine, tourists are required to stay within the Vinpearl resort complex and will be tested twice during their trip.

Vaccine News

- Hong Kong has approved lowering the age limit for the Sinovac vaccine to three years old, down from 18 years of age, to broaden its inoculation campaign.
- Canada has now allowed the use of the Pfizer-BioNTech vaccine on children aged 5 to 11 years old, especially as this age bracket is reporting a high number of new infections across the economy.
- In the United States, the Food and Drug Administration has authorized the use of booster doses for all adults at least six months after their second dose of either the Pfizer-BioNTech or Moderna shots.
