Statistics

- Worldwide confirmed cases stood at 103.9 million yesterday, after more than 450,000 new cases, higher than the previous day. Total fatalities increased above 2.25 million.
- The ASEAN+3 region saw around 19,000 new cases, bringing its total to above 2.64 million.
- Japan confirmed a record 119 additional deaths yesterday, with around 2,400 new cases, an increase from the previous day. Total confirmed cases reached above 394,000.
- New infections in Korea rose to 467 yesterday, increasing for the second straight day, and pushing its total confirmed cases above 79,000. Of the new cases, 34 were imported. Authorities also confirmed 5 new cases of the virus variants: with 4 people infected with the UK variant, and 1 case with the South African strain.
- Hong Kong reported 25 new infections yesterday, a three-day low. Total confirmed cases stood above 10,500.
- Malaysia reported 21 new deaths yesterday, a new daily record, pushing total fatalities above 790. It also saw around 3,400 new infections, the second day of new cases falling below 5,000. Total confirmed cases surpassed 222,000.
- At least 30 new infections were recorded in Vietnam yesterday, still linked to the outbreak that originated from province of Hai Duong last week. Total cases related the recent flare-up stood around 300. Total confirmed cases surpassed 1,880, with 35 deaths.

News

- Authorities in Vietnam attributed the latest outbreak to the UK variant. The source of the recent spread, or “patient zero” is still unknown. Managing the transmission in capital Hanoi is expected to take longer.
- Malaysia has extended its near-nationwide movement control order (MCO) by two weeks, until February 19, especially as several states under the order are seeing a rise in cases. The movement restrictions were originally scheduled to end tomorrow, February 4.
- Late-stage trial results published in The Lancet, a weekly peer-reviewed general medical journal, showed that Russia's first vaccine, Sputnik V, appeared to be almost 92 percent effective against COVID-19.
- A preliminary study showed that a single dose of the Oxford/AstraZeneca vaccine has 76 percent efficacy against the virus for up to three months, and could cut transmission by 67 percent. These support the United Kingdom's decision to delay the booster shots to 12 weeks. The findings are still under review at The Lancet.
- Health authorities in Korea reported that the economy will apply to import 117,000 doses of the Pfizer-BioNTech vaccine through the WHO-led COVAX initiative later this month, and through a fast-track import system. The doses are expected to cover around 60,000 people.

Notes: New cases since previous day. Δ% refers to percentage change since previous day. Fatality rate measured as deaths per confirmed infections.

^{1/} Since January 31, 2020.

^{2/} Resolved cases (i.e. non-active cases) to total cases; serves as a proxy for the stage of the cycle.
