Statistics

- Worldwide confirmed cases surpassed 46 million on Saturday, adding the latest million cases after only two days. Total fatalities have surpassed 1.2 million.
- The United States accounted for nearly 20 percent of global cases, with more than 9.1 million infections. Last Friday, it saw a new record of more than 98,000 daily new cases.
- Total confirmed cases in Myanmar surpassed 53,000 during the weekend. It saw almost 700 new infections yesterday, marking the lowest daily increase since late-September.
- Korea reported 97 new cases yesterday, falling below the 100-mark for the first time in six days. Of the new cases, 18 were imported. Its total confirmed cases stood above 26,700.
- Malaysia saw nearly 960 new infections yesterday, after it reported two new clusters, bringing its total to above 32,500. Sabah remains the worst-hit, followed by Selangor, where one of the new clusters were found. The other cluster was detected in Penang.
- Total confirmed cases in France stood over 1.4 million, after new infections rose by nearly 46,300 yesterday. Total deaths increased to more than 36,000.
- Russia hit a new daily record yesterday, when it saw at least 18,300 new infections. This brought its total confirmed cases to 1.6 million, the fourth highest globally. Nearly 30 percent of yesterday's new cases were found in capital Moscow.

News

- Japan is exempting qualified business travellers—Japanese citizens and those holding residency status—returning from overseas trips of one week or less from the 14-day quarantine requirement. To be exempted, travellers must provide proof of a negative COVID-19 test result, and a written itinerary of places to be visited upon return.
- UK Prime Minister Boris Johnson yesterday put England back into a national lockdown after the United Kingdom surpassed the 1-million mark of confirmed cases. The one-month lockdown will begin this Thursday and will reportedly end on December 2. All non-essential retail shops will be closed, while essential shops, schools, and universities will remain open.
- Korea yesterday announced that it will expand its mandatory mask policy from 12 "high-risk" locations to 23 categories starting November 7. New places covered include theme parks, department stores, and hair salons. Korea also introduced a new five-tiered social distancing scheme to replace the current three-level system in order to better tailor its COVID-19 restrictions.
