Statistics

- Worldwide confirmed cases surpassed 34 million yesterday, taking only six days to increase from 33 million. Total fatalities stood at 1.02 million.
- Across the ASEAN+3 region, around 8,600 new cases were reported yesterday.
- Total confirmed cases in Myanmar surpassed 14,000 yesterday, after it recorded at least 1,000 new infections. It also saw 11 additional deaths, pushing its death toll to 321.
- Indonesia saw around 4,180 daily new infections yesterday, marking the third-straight day of more than 4,000 cases. Another 116 deaths were also reported.
- Total confirmed cases in the Philippines surpassed 314,000 yesterday, after it saw close to 2,400 new infections. Total fatalities stood near 5,600.
- Malaysia reported its biggest spike in daily new infections yesterday, when it saw 260 new cases. This was the highest one-day increase since early June. Authorities link these to an outbreak in Sabah, on the island of Borneo. Of the new infections, only 1 was imported.
- Italy recorded nearly 2,550 new infections yesterday, breaching the 2,000-mark for the first time since the end of April. It also saw 24 new deaths, pushing its death toll to nearly 36,000.
- France saw more than 12,000 new infections yesterday, pushing total confirmed cases to above 580,000. The health minister in a speech described the virus transmission as "too fast," and that the situation is still "worsening" in Paris and five other cities.

News

- US President Donald Trump, along with his wife, tested positive for the virus, and are now in quarantine. The couple were tested yesterday, after a close aide of the president was confirmed positive for the virus earlier in the day.
- A second vaccine from Russia proved successful in early-stage trials, according to its developer yesterday. The experimental vaccine, called EpiVacCorona, is being developed by Vektor, a state virology research centre based in Siberia.
- In France, capital Paris is likely to be moved to the "maximum alert" level as soon as Monday next week, according to its health minister. Two other cities, Marseille and Aix, are already at "maximum alert," the second to the last level before a declaration of state of emergency.
- Indonesia's Kalbe Farma will be distributing in the next few months the antiviral drug remdesivir, which reportedly helps increase the recovery rate from COVID-19. It will be sold locally as Covofir, and each vial will be priced at IDR 3 million (around USD 202).

Notes: New cases since previous day. Δ% refers to percentage change since previous day. Fatality rate measured as deaths per confirmed infections.

1/ Since January 31, 2020.

2/ Resolved cases (i.e. non-active cases) to total cases; serves as a proxy for the stage of the cycle.
