Statistics

- More than 218,000 new cases were confirmed worldwide yesterday, the highest daily increase so far, and the first time more than 200,000 cases have ever been confirmed in a single day.
- This strong increase was particularly driven by more than 46,000 new cases in Brazil, almost 20,000 new cases in India, and more than 50,000 new cases in the United States.
- It is the first time more than 50,000 new cases have been confirmed in the United States in a single day and only the sixth time more than 40,000 new cases have been confirmed, as the outbreak accelerates across several states.
- Almost 3,000 new cases were reported across the ASEAN+3 region yesterday, including 1,385 in Indonesia and 997 in the Philippines.
- Japan confirmed 223 new cases, the highest daily tally in almost 2 months.
- Hong Kong confirmed 28 new cases, most of them imported.

News

- After nearly three months, the ban on international passenger flights in Thailand has been eased. International passenger flights will be permitted to operate into Thailand for certain categories of passengers such as returning Thai nationals, foreign nationals with a valid Thai work permit, members of diplomatic missions, or foreign nationals studying in Thailand.
- In the Philippines, strict lockdown restrictions in Cebu City will remain in place as the city appears to be a new virus hot spot. Lighter restrictions in the capital region will also be maintained.
- An early phase 1/2 trial of an experimental vaccine from Pfizer and BioNtech showed some immune response in patients, though also causing some side effects. Larger phase 3 studies are expected to begin this summer. The vaccine is one of 14 vaccines currently in human trials, with a total of at least 178 vaccines in various stages of development.
