Statistics

- For the first time in more than two months, Thailand has not reported any new cases.
- In Indonesia, 689 new cases were confirmed, its biggest daily increase so far.
- 2 new locally transmitted cases were reported in Hong Kong, the first in more than three weeks.
- Infections elsewhere in the world continue to rise rapidly. With more than 190,000 confirmed cases, Brazil now has the sixth highest number of cases in the world, surpassing France.
- New cases per million population remain high in Russia, the United States and the United Kingdom, as well as in economies around the world such as Belarus, the United Arab Emirates, Chile, Peru or Saudi Arabia.

News

- In Japan, the state of emergency ends early today in 39 of its 47 prefectures. Greater Tokyo and Osaka will remain under the state of emergency.
- Singapore is aiming to test all of the 323,000 foreign worker dormitory residents, which make up around 90 percent of all its coronavirus cases. With the mass testing strategy, the authorities expect reported new cases to remain elevated for some time, but will bring the outbreak under control through identification and isolation.
- The Chinese city of Jilin has imposed a partial lockdown after new local transmission of cases was reported in the province.
- Over the last two months, many countries in Europe temporarily reintroduced border controls within the Schengen area. Several borders will now gradually reopen, including all of Germany's Schengen-internal borders by June 15. Entry from third countries remains mostly restricted.
- As Iceland plans to restart its tourism industry, new rules will give international arrivals the choice of a 14-day quarantine, a virus test at the airport, or a negative test certificate from abroad. Rules will be introduced by June 15. It remains unclear who will pay for testing.
