

AMRO's latest news, publications and commentaries.

PRESS RELEASES

Thailand: Sustaining Recovery amid Uncertainty and Revitalizing Long-term Growth

Thailand's economy is recovering robustly on the back of resilient domestic demand and a sustained rebound in tourist arrivals.

Read the press release here.

AMRO Affirms its Commitment to Safeguard ASEAN+3 Macroeconomic and Financial Stability with New Website

As part of its Strategic Direction 2030, AMRO has launched a new website with enhanced features to promote greater access to AMRO's research and analyses.

Read the press release here.

PUBLICATIONS

Malaysia: Strengthening Economic Resilience Anchored by Robust Growth Momentum

Malaysia's growth momentum is expected to be sustained in 2023 by resilient domestic demand and stronger tourism recovery.

Read the annual consultation report here.
Read the press release here.
Watch the highlights here.

COMMENTARY

BOJ Will Need to Be More Flexible Given Inflation Uncertainties

AMRO economists Jinho Choi and Jae Young Lee write that BOJ will need to be more flexible given inflation uncertainties while navigating a delicate balance between stimulating growth and ensuring price stability.

Read the op-ed here.

READ MORE ON AMRO'S WEBSITE

