

AMRO's latest news, publications and commentaries.

PRESS RELEASES

The Philippines: Managing a Robust Recovery amid High Inflation and Structural Challenges

Philippines' economic growth is projected to moderate to 5.9% in 2023 due to high base effects and weaker external demand.

Read the press release here.

Hong Kong, China: Sustaining Economic Recovery in the Face of Heightened Uncertainties

The Hong Kong economy is poised to rebound strongly by 4.7% in 2023, before moderating toward trend growth in 2024.

Read the press release here.

Cambodia: Restoring Policy Space and Diversifying Economy Essential for Resilience and Sustainable Growth

Cambodia's economy continues to recover solidly on the back of a strong rebound in the services sectors.

Read the press release here.

Launch of ASEAN+3 Finance Think-tank Network

AMRO and 20 leading research institutions launched the ASEAN+3 Finance Think-tank Network (AFTN) to foster cooperation and research toward regional macroeconomic and financial resilience and stability.

Read the press release here.

PUBLICATIONS

---

Has the Shifting Trade Landscape Changed the China–ASEAN Nexus?

China's position as a leading exporter in global trade is being challenged and the ASEAN region is adjusting to this transition.

Read the analytical note here.

The RISK from China's Property Sector

Given the stress on one of China's biggest growth engines — its property sector — are systemic risks building in the economy?

Read the analytical note here.

UPCOMING

---

Stay tuned for the quarterly update of the ASEAN+3 Regional Economic Outlook on October 4.

---

READ MORE ON AMRO'S WEBSITE

